

Presiding Office (Code po0163)

- The President shall preside at all meetings of the Board.
 - It is expected that the Board President should be able to run a respectful, timely, and productive meeting on their own. The current Board President struggles to do this. Often, she is being directed by the Vice President, or an attorney who instructs her on what to do.